Scent Your Mood — Natural Perfumes for Wellbeing

Alix Clo's perfumes are more than just fragrances—they're rituals, stories, and medicine that embrace your body.

Designed to connect you to your senses and the natural world, each scent invites you to embark on a journey of well-being and self-discovery.

I created Alix Clo because I loved perfume, but perfume didn't love me back.

For years, I struggled with sensitivities to synthetic fragrances—headaches, dizziness, and allergic reactions. It wasn't just about scent; it was about well-being. I craved something pure, something alive.

That's why I turned to natural perfumery.

Alix Clo's fragrances are crafted from botanicals, resins, and essential oils—free from synthetics, phthalates, and harsh chemicals. These scents evolve with your skin, creating a deeper connection to nature, memory, and self.

Fragrance should never make you feel unwell.

It should lift your mood, spark nostalgia, and bring you home to yourself.
